Strategy

Top 50 User Groups

Looking to engage groups in the community? Find out which email domains on your site are not already associated with a User Group--and reach out to build new relationships!

Needs Added

Which opportunities need some attention? Learn which needs on your site are getting the most—and least—responses. For those that need some love, post to social media, or email links to selected volunteers.

Agency Activity

Want the scoop on agency engagement? See which agencies are actively using your site ... and which ones might need some encouragement.

Details of Individual Hours

Where else are people volunteering? Find potential new nonprofit partnerships by seeing what organizations volunteers mention when logging individual hours.

Impact

Responses Submitted by Interest

What are your volunteers passionate about? Tell the story of where your volunteers are making the most impact. Share this report's data with your board, on your blog, and elsewhere so everyone knows just how your volunteers are making a difference!

Volunteer Hours Logged

Curious about volunteer engagement? This report shows volunteer hours recorded, along with the nonprofits those volunteers are helping out. This report is another great tool for showing your volunteers' impact in the community.

Recognition

Responses Submitted by Agency

Want to recognize your active agencies? Check out this report, and send high fives to your agencies who are getting the most volunteer responses to their posted needs!

Volunteer Hours Summary

Want to recognize your top volunteers? Use this report to see who's logged the most hours on your site, and recognize them accordingly!

User Group Summary

Want to recognize your group volunteers? For each User Group, view the hours for each individual within the group. Share the report with your partners so they can recognize their volunteers, too!
